Say Hello to Fall!

It's hard to believe that we are almost at the end of 2025! My, how time flies when you're having fun at the Fon du Lac Park District.

Fall has always been my favorite season. The time when everything bursts with its last beauty, as if nature has been saving up all year for the grand finale. I continue to be thankful for all of you that support me and my program and most of all I enjoy spending time with you. Fall is also the perfect time to get together with friends and have some fun times with us here at Fon du Lac Park District.

Happy Thanksgiving to all of my family and dear friends. I am honored and blessed to have you in my life. May this holiday season bring you love to your heart, health to your body, and peace and joy to your home throughout the new year.

Merry Christmas to the most amazing people I know, the unsaid gestures which you show truly fill my heart with love. Warmest thoughts and best wishes for a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year.

May peace, love and prosperity follow you,

Jackie

PS: To our snowbirds, please let us know if you will be gone for the winter months, that way we can remove your name off of the mailing list. Once back let us know and we will make sure to mail you a newsletter. Please travel safely and we can't wait to see you when you get back!

Please Note:

Monday, Oct 20 • The Comeback Trail (2020) • Comedy, Crime

A film producer (Robert De Niro) who owes money to a mobster (Morgan Freeman) tries to "accidentally" kill his aging lead actor (Tommy Lee Jones) for an insurance scam so he can payoff his debt. However, he doesn't anticipate the washed-up movie star he casts would become revitalized by being back in front of the cameras. He soon begins to realize that the film they're shooting is a masterpiece in the making. Rated R for language throughout and some violent content. Lunch sponsored by Arcadia Care of Toulon.

Monday, Nov 24 • Home for the Holidays (1995) • Comedy, Romance

When her teenage daughter opts out of Thanksgiving, single mother Claudia Larson (Holly Hunter) travels alone to her childhood home for an explosive holiday dinner with her dysfunctional family. Claudia quickly tires of her parents, her long-suffering sister (Cynthia Stevenson), her snobby brother-in-law (Steve Guttenberg) and her nutty aunt (Geraldine Chaplin). But the evening gets interesting when sparks fly between Claudia and her brother's handsome friend Leo Fish (Dylan McDermott). Lunch sponsored by Arcadia Care of Morton & Peoria.

Monday, Dec 29 • The Shakiest Gun in the West (1968) • Comedy, Western

In 1870, bumbling Philadelphia-based dentist Jesse W. Haywood (Don Knotts) travels west to set up a practice in the frontier. There, he meets Penelope Cushings (Barbara Rhoades), a pretty bandit who has agreed to investigate an Indian gun-smuggling operation in exchange for her freedom. When their wagon train is attacked, Penelope shoots several Indians dead. However, Jesse falsely assumes it was his errant gunshots that saved the wagon and soon earns a reputation as a great gunslinger. Lunch sponsored by Beacon of Hope Hospice.

Wheel Art Pottery Studio, Peoria

Wheel throwing is a pottery technique where a potter uses a spinning wheel to shape clay into symmetrical, usable forms like bowls, vases, and cups. It involves centering a lump of clay on the wheel, then using hands and tools to manipulate the clay as the wheel spins, creating the desired shape.

During this class you are instructed and assisted by Master Potter, Jacob Grant and his assistants. After the pottery is created during your party, it remains at the studio. Jacob does finish work to your piece. When completely finished, the pottery is watertight, food-safe, dishwasher safe and microwaveable safe and can literally last forever. These pieces will be just as functional as commercial-made pottery but are even better than the pots you find at any other store because YOU made them! Allow 6-8 weeks for your piece to be returned.
